BEST BET: Race 6 - #1 Rosa Star

Making her first start in the barn of Armando de la Cerda, this filly is coming off some decent races right here at Gulfstream. Stretching out in distance, she has natural early speed and looks like she could be the lone pacesetter in this field. Should she be able to dictate the pace, I think she finds herself in the right spot to finally get that maiden diploma.

LONGSHOT: Race 9 - #2 End Play

Another horse in this field, Dowse's Beach, will likely take all of the money, and so I think there will be some good value in other places. End Play is turning back to a sprint distance after a pair of route races, and the last time he sprinted on the turf, he won. In addition, I think there is plenty of speed in this race, including the likely favorite, and this horse should sit the perfect trip.
