BEST BET: Race 5 - #7 Escribiente

After breaking his maiden last time out at Tampa, this colt comes back in a logical spot for his first race against winners. Trainer Reid Nagle and jockey Sammy Camacho are 4-for-7 winning and 6-for-7 in the money over the past 90 days.

LONGSHOT: Race 12 - #11 Peace Points

This gelding is an unknown when it comes to the dirt, as his only experience on the main track was one race on a sealed sloppy track. Trainer Peter Walder's barn has been going well lately, and his stats with first off the layoff (45+ days) going turf to dirt yields a 38% win average, and 54% of the time in the money.
