

RACE BY RACE ANALYSIS

By Acacia Courtney

Sunday, April 1, 2018

RACE 1:

1 – Bright Venezuela
3 – Jubilant
9 – Rahy Momenta

SELECTIONS: 1-3-9-2

RACE 2:

4 – Starship Hostility
1 – Beautyofaday
3 – Indian Chaser

SELECTIONS: 4-1-3-7

RACE 3:

7 – Asked and Answered
2 – Visions of You
5 – Family Justice

SELECTIONS: 7-2-5-1

RACE 4:

4 – Show Me the Bucks
3 – King Humor
1 – Reed Kan

SELECTIONS: 4-3-1-2

RACE 5:

10 – Blake's Lucky Star
8 – Disruptor
1 – As It Happens

SELECTIONS: 10-8-1-4

RACE 6:

6 – O. K. Kay
3 – Fashionably Wild
4 – Aquemini

SELECTIONS: 6-3-4-2

RACE 7:

1 – Forty Fathoms
11 – Sub Factom
13 – Switchblade

SELECTIONS: 1-11-13-4

RACE 8:

3 – Bow Tie Affair
1 – Ray's the Bar (GB)
4 – The Bull (Aus)

SELECTIONS: 3-1-4-9

RACE 9:

2 – Mahvelous Kitten
8 – Karenina
1 – Nikki's Cause

SELECTIONS: 2-8-1-3

RACE 10:

2 – Locomotion
3 – Slot
1 – Fitzwillie

SELECTIONS: 2-3-1-4

RACE 11:

1 – Bold Daddy
8 – Laythatpistoldown
2 – Flashy Chelsey

SELECTIONS: 1-8-2-9

RACE 12:

10 – Alexandras Joy
2 – Little Miss May
4 – Play That Tone

SELECTIONS: 10-2-4-12

BEST BET: Race 6 - #6 O. K. Kay

This filly was very game to get her win last time out, and trainer Jane Cibelli bats at a 28% average with winners last time out on the turf, and a positive ROI of $3.12. I like that Tyler Gaffalione, who clearly suits O. K. Kay, stays aboard, and I think she might be a notch above her competition.

LONGSHOT: Race 9 - #8 Karenina

This daughter of Skipshot has been in very consistent form lately, and last time out, she finished a good third behind Ferdinanda, who just missed in the Sanibel Island Stakes next time out. She'll be a nice price and has talent.