

RACE BY RACE ANALYSIS

By Acacia Courtney

Saturday, January 13, 2018

RACE 1:

5 – Archer Road
1 – Mr. Bridger
6 – Areyoutalkingtome
SELECTIONS: 5-1-6-2

RACE 2:

7 – Flying Queen
1 – Bun Bun
4 – Mamachita
SELECTIONS: 7-1-4-3

RACE 3:

6 – Raging Town
5 – Trading Volume
2 – First Mistress
SELECTIONS: 6-5-2-1

RACE 4:

2 – Sister Drama
7 – Court Central
9 – Little Irishdancer
SELECTIONS: 2-7-9-3

RACE 5:

3 – Little No Way
2 – Candy Asset
8 – Soglio
SELECTIONS: 3-2-8-5

RACE 6:

2 – Jubilant
7 – Overdraft
1 – Quicklucky coco
SELECTIONS: 2-7-1-6

RACE 7:

8 – College Holly
7 – Vortex Road
3 – Vinyardnina
SELECTIONS: 8-7-3-1

RACE 8:

10 – Cypriana
8 – Cilantro
7 – Paulita
SELECTIONS: 10-8-7-3

RACE 9:

1 – Padilla
9 – Amelia's Wild ride
3 – G Q Coverup
SELECTIONS: 1-9-3-5

RACE 10:

11 – Cowtown Spirit
10 – Didnotmeantit
9 – Mighty Patient
SELECTIONS: 11-10-9-5

RACE 11:

10 – Glossy
4 – Pocket Book
2 – Precieuse
SELECTIONS: 10-4-2-12

BEST BET: Race 1 - #5 Archer Road

From the first time I saw this horse, I thought he'd be most effective going two turns on the turf. He has steadily improved, but I think the drop in class today will make a world of difference. He looks like he's going to meet the right field to finally get that maiden diploma. Emisael Jaramillo has the call.

LONGSHOT: Race 9 - #3 G Q Coverup

This is a horse that I've always thought highly of, and love to see him pick up Jose Lezcano and to be back in state bred competition. I think he's spotted well for a very sharp barn that flies under the radar, and though he'll have to get around a legitimate favorite in Padilla, I think he's in the right place today.