

RACE BY RACE ANALYSIS

By Acacia Courtney

Sunday, March 11, 2018

RACE 1:

2 – Miss Aliphant
1 – Fast Girl
8 – Beacon of Light

SELECTIONS: 2-1-8-9

RACE 2:

1 – Making Havoc
2 – Lady Coventry
5 – Lago Lindo

SELECTIONS: 1-2-5-6

RACE 3:

8 – Mr. Papillon
5 – One of a Kind
4 – Dancer's Edge

SELECTIONS: 8-5-4-7

RACE 4:

7 – Plein Air
5 – Court Central
8 – Hansen's Girl

SELECTIONS: 7-5-8-1

RACE 5:

4 – Autostrade
5 – D Squared
6 – Galatians

SELECTIONS: 4-5-6-2

RACE 6:

3 – Top Hat City
1 – Offshore Trip
2 – Arpinella

SELECTIONS: 3-1-2-4

RACE 7:

7 – Burton
8 – We Take Checks
5 – Rider of the Blue

SELECTIONS: 7-8-5-1

RACE 8:

2 – Kensington
11 – Too Charming
8 – Amazing Audrey

SELECTIONS: 2-11-8-6

RACE 9:

4 – Farcical Feline
3 – Summer Luck
1 – Gold Lace

SELECTIONS: 4-3-1-7

RACE 10:

8 – Milbra
2 – First Distinction
4 – Poopsie Doopsie

SELECTIONS: 8-2-4-6

RACE 11:

7 – Honored Promise
6 – Shanghai Shuffle
1 – Miss Mimosa

SELECTIONS: 7-6-1-8

RACE 12:

7 – The Hardest Way
3 – Adulation
2 – Barry Karafin Bets

SELECTIONS: 7-3-2-6

RACE 13:

4 – Momenta Kat
6 – Way Over Budget
3 – Givonna's Magic

SELECTIONS: 4-6-3-2

BEST BET: Race 1 - #2 Miss Aliphant

First off the claim for trainer Bobby Dibona, this filly is going back to the turf, which her pedigree suggests is her preferred surface. Her race two starts back on the grass looks bad on paper, but she has a nightmare trip, and it was against tougher company. If she runs like she did three starts back, then she absolutely is a big player here.

LONGSHOT: Race 11 - #1 Miss Mimosa

Not only am I a fan of mimosas, but I am a fan of freshman sire Violence. He has a filly debuting here for trainer Bill Mott, whose firsters have been running exceptionally well lately. She is out of a stakes winning mare who was precocious and won at age 2, and has already produced a winning foal. Irad Ortiz Jr. is named to ride.