

RACE BY RACE ANALYSIS

By Acacia Courtney

Wednesday, March 14, 2018

RACE 1:

4 – Cetara
5 – Salsalida
2 – Sugarsugarsugar
SELECTIONS: 4-5-2-3

RACE 2:

1 – Dreamy Martini
6 – Perfect Tay
2 – Royal Mile
SELECTIONS: 1-6-2-7

RACE 3:

4 – Ship Disturber
7 – Dream Saturday
5 – Moonlight Bandit
SELECTIONS: 4-7-5-6

RACE 4:

4 – Zig Zillion
2 – Powerful Venezuela
1 – Take Your Place
SELECTIONS: 4-2-1-3

RACE 5:

5 – Sierra Leona
6 – Beautiful Wife
3 – Starship Zodiac
SELECTIONS: 5-6-3-1

RACE 6:

5 – Cocktail Skirt
6 – Violent Nature
4 – Dudacity
SELECTIONS: 5-6-4-10

RACE 7:

6 – Variant Perception
7 – Channel Cat
4 – Atlantic Force
SELECTIONS: 6-7-4-1

RACE 8:

3 – Little Bridge
5 – Maddy's Salsa
7 – Drama Run
SELECTIONS: 3-5-7-2

RACE 9:

7 – Sweet Sting
2 – Mitchell Road
3 – Punked (Ire)
SELECTIONS: 7-2-3-1

RACE 10:

2 – Arch Daddy
3 – Saham
1 – Cunco (Ire)
SELECTIONS: 2-3-1-4

RACE 11:

8 – Stormin Charlotte
7 – Sober On Sunday
9 – Tiuna
SELECTIONS: 8-7-9-1

BEST BET: Race 6 - #5 Cocktail Skirt

Now second off the claim for Jane Cibelli, this filly should appreciate the drop in class. However, she ran well last time out, considering she was very wide and ended up being beaten by just a length and $\frac{3}{4}$. Jockey Jose Ortiz stays aboard.

LONGSHOT: Race 7 - #1 Flight Deck

This horse is coming in off a bit of a layoff since the start of November, but he is tested in ways others in this field aren't. He broke his maiden at first asking on the turf at Woodbine (one on the turf and one on the synthetic track), though on the synthetic track, were against stakes competition. He has been working over the main track at Gulfstream and could be the wildcard in here.