

JASON BLEWITT'S

Race Analysis

Friday, July 6, 2018

RACE 1: 2 – 7 – 1 – 3

RACE 2: 4 – 1 – 6 – 2

RACE 3: 7 – 5 – 4 – 6

RACE 4: 8 – 2 – 5 – 6

RACE 5: 7 – 3 – 5 – 9

RACE 6: 1 – 6 – 3 – 2

RACE 7: 8 – 1 – 5 – 6

RACE 8: 9 – 1 – 6 – 5

RACE 9: 1 – 12 – 2 – 3

GULFSTREAMPARK.COM

FSS Prep / BBB: Hope you're ready to rock n' roll for July's first Twilight Friday program. GP has nine races carded – first post is about 2:20 p.m. Eastern. For the fans taking the GP racing action in person – welcome and thanks for coming out – make sure you stick around after the races for some good ol' fashioned rockin' blues performed in the Sport of Kings Theatre. As far as the racing action goes – and, of course, in my never-ending quest for the perfect best bet – I am a big fan of Fully Loaded in race 6. I loved everything I saw from this Florida-bred son of Kantharos in his winning career debut 39 days ago. I'd also be very surprised if Fully Loaded – as well as the major players in Friday's 6th race – did not have aspirations for the August 4th Florida Sires Stakes at GP. The '18 Florida Sire Stakes, which has a ton of history, begins Saturday, August 4th, with the Dr. Fager and Desert Vixen. Fully Loaded, who drew the rail for trainer Jose Pinchin on Friday afternoon, displayed a nice, relaxed stalking gear before he drove to the lead May 28th. I think he beat a solid 2yo colt in the process as well, a horse by the name of Social Paranoia for Todd Pletcher. I'm expecting more of the same from Fully Loaded, even though horses exiting his maiden victory are a combined 0 for four. Late P5 single here.

Fresh Zerpa Claim in R7: It has been next to impossible to miss the quality work and consistent winning by trainer Gilberto Zerpa recently in South Florida. Zerpa, who runs Eila off the claim in Friday's 8th race, owns otherworldly numbers with new acquisitions. In fact, he headed into the first full week of the new summer meet here with an insanely impressive 11 for 26 record with first claim runners. Serious, serious stuff here.

BBB Fully Loaded Anchors My Late P5: I am obviously confident that both A) Fully Loaded is a very talented, promising racehorse, one bound for a legitimate run at the Florida Sire Stakes and B) he is a worthy Rainbow 6 and late Pick 5 single on this Twilight Friday card. So, here is a little $27 Pick 5 play structured around Fully Loaded. Some of the supporting races are pretty good and way more open than I think the sixth is. Here's how I see it shaking out; best of luck!

R5: 3,5,7 -Opening leg centers on dropping Wake Me Up At Noon, who I don't fully trust

R6: 1 -Before Catherinethegreat, Fully Loaded was the best-looking 2yo I saw in S. Florida

R7: 1,8 -I'd most certainly consider singling Eila if I was playing multiple tickets

R8: 1,6,9 -Nola Fashion hopefully needed a layoff; Helen Virginia is very consistent

R9: 1,2,12 -Coverage is key in the nightcap; trimmed firster Beautiful Gladys late – mistake?