White-Hot Khozan Looks for His Latest Score

How good has Khozan been? Well, the months of May and June were particularly awesome for this young Ocala-based stallion. In a matter of weeks, Khozan managed to reach the top of the “freshman sire” leader board with an impressive five winners (from a mere 13 starters.) He’ll look for his sixth career win at stud Saturday at Gulfstream Park, thanks to his 10th-race bound, first-time starting Khozan’s Valentine. As an aside, please note that Saturday’s 12-race Gulfstream Park program will begin at 12:50 ET, a card very much anchored by the $100,000 Ginger Punch Stakes on turf (race 5.) The Ginger Punch (restricted to Florida-bred fillies and mares) honors the Stronach / Adena Springs Breeders’ Cup Distaff / Eclipse Award winning older filly / mare of 2007. A bit later in the day finds Khozan’s Valentine debuting against seven fellow Florida-breds in the 10th race, a 4.5 furlong maiden special. This colt is the third foal from the unraced Tiz a Valentine (Tiznow); he has a half-sister that is one-for-nine on-track; that lone win occurred in a dirt sprint. Khozan’s Valentine debuts for trainer Scott Becker, who scored here with an 18-1 winning firster last weekend. Meanwhile, trainer Larry Rivelli saddles a somewhat infrequent Gulfstream starter in Jettin Out. Rivelli runs one of the mid-west’s best operations and is very dangerous in this race with his second-time starting Jettin Out. Jettin Out lost a tough photo at Indiana Grand late last month but ran very well in hard-fought defeat. He was bumped and legitimately bothered a couple of times early in a frantic and rushed opening furlong. I like that he refused to back down after a hard three-wide chase and battled bravely. That May 25th field from Indiana has produced two next-out maiden special winners at Belterra Park.
