Turf Maidens Late Sunday Afternoon

The third-to-final week of Gulfstream's wintertime meeting comes to a close Sunday with a 13-race card. Note that first-race post time is a tad or two after 12 noon, ET (and don't forget to set your clocks one hour ahead before retiring to bed the night before!) Of Sunday's baker's dozen, race 9 interests me the most. Here's a quick rundown of four potentially key first-time starters in that field of three-year-old maiden turf runners.

Largent – This Into Mischief colt debuts for trainer Todd Pletcher and jockey Luis Saez from a coveted inside post position. Largent hails from a 21yo dam that won twice over the dirt (she was 2/4 on dirt) and has foaled seven prior horses; four of those seven foals have won while two were successful over turf.

Big Torch Key – Trainer Dale Romans saddles this Lemon Drop Kid colt, who brought 210k as a weanling and later, 300k as a yearling. All three of her dam's win came on the turf (she was 3/17 on grass.) Big Torch Key is the third foal in the family; his two older sibs are a combined 0/7.

The Rock Says – Uncle Mo is in the house – as is veteran trainer Stanley Hough – with this Sagamore Farm homebred. His More Than Ready dam notched both of her career wins over the turf. The Rock Says is her first foal.

Militiaman – Three-time champion trainer Chad Brown saddles this pricey Broken Vow colt. Militiaman hails from a 15yo Smart Strike dam that notched her lone career victory over the turf. He's the seventh foal in the family; turf-trying siblings are two-for-four on the grass.
