

JASON BLEWITT'S

Race Analysis

Sunday, May 12, 2019

RACE 1: 7 – 5 – 4 – 1

RACE 2: 5 – 6 – 3 – 7

RACE 3: 3 – 5 – 1 – 4

RACE 4: 6 – 2 – 3 – 1

RACE 5: 8 – 5 – 1 – 7

RACE 6: 5 – 6 – 8 – 2

RACE 7: 5 – 2 – 3 – 1

RACE 8: 1 – 6 – 7 – 9

RACE 9: 8 – 4 – 1 – 3

RACE 10: 4 – 7 – 3 – 1

RACE 11: 9 – 4 – 1 – 7

First-Race Post is 1:15 ET

South Florida Youngsters Grab Sunday's Spotlight

Quality dams – hey, Sunday is Mother's Day after all – as well as pair of promising first-crop stallions converge in race 4 this Sunday at Gulfstream Park. And, of course, Happy Mother's Day to all of the moms out there! Six two-year-old colts will battle five furlongs in the 4th, a $65,000 maiden special weight over the main track. As far as raceday experience goes, Genghis and Cajun Casanova faced one another here last month. Cajun Casanova blasted out of the gate with scorching speed and a rapid turn of foot. Genghis, though, easily ran the better race of the pair as he was forced to chase Cajun Casanova early before he checked in a narrowly beaten second, some two necks off the winner (even-money shot Positively Awesome – Jackson Bend's little brother to boot) and nearly six lengths in front of Cajun Casanova. I consider Genghis the colt to beat in this field off that solid career debut. As for the first-time starters, the majority of fans are likely to land on the Ralph Nicks-trained Liam's Lucky Charm. Off the bat, new sire Khozan has made a great recent impression at stud (Khozan had two wins from his first five starters heading into the weekend). This colt's Stormy Atlantic dam, P.S. I Love You, won four races on-track and has already foaled four winners from four foals! Nicks also saddles Bridge, the Hear No Evil colt (Jacks or Better Farm) who is related to six winners (Bridge is the ninth foal in his family.) Moreover, his dam (by the great, lineage-making Nureyev) won as a two-year-old. Carpe Diem is the other key freshman sire in the race, thanks to his rail drawn Tank 'Em Down. This colt hails from a two-year-old winning dam, who has since foaled four two-year-old winners herself! Carpe Diem is 1/1 at stud.

GULFSTREAMPARK.com